Matthew A. Linde is one of only eleven (11) lawyers, out of over 85,750 lawyers as of June 1st, 2016, who have attained board certification by the Florida Bar in Elder Law and in Wills, Trusts and Estates and is the only lawyer in Southwest Florida (i.e., south of Clearwater) who has attained this status. Certification is the Florida Bar's highest evaluation of an attorney's competency, experience and professionalism in the areas of law approved for specialization. As of June 2016, less than two tenths of one percent (< .0135%) of the lawyers currently licensed to practice law in Florida are Florida Bar Board Certified in Elder Law and in Wills, Trusts and Estates. If you have a legal problem do you need an expert in Elder Law or Wills, Trusts and Estates? If so you can take comfort knowing that Matthew A. Linde has been evaluated for professionalism and tested for expertise. In 1989 Mr. Linde received a B.A. degree from the University of Wisconsin Summa Cum Laude, and in 1993 he received a Doctor of Law, J.D., degree from the University of Wisconsin Law School. In 1999 he received his post-doctorate degree in taxation (Master of Legal Letters or LL.M.) from Golden Gate School of Law in San Francisco, California. Mr. Linde was first licensed to practice law in May of 1993, and is currently licensed to practice law in California, Minnesota (inactive), Florida, and admitted to practice law in the United States Tax Court, the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit and the United States Supreme Court. In California Mr. Linde worked for one of the largest professional service firms in the world and gained significant experience in preparing income and estate tax returns for wealthy individuals and estates as well as estate and tax planning.
